For Immediate Release: Abu Dhabi, 13th November, 2019:

Music heads & Formula 1 fans can start blocking their calendars for race week, as Diablito announces massive entertainment line-up, headlined by Raxon, DJ Bliss, Saif and Sound and more.

The Big Race Weekender, which starts on Thursday, November 28th, sees the Spanish venue call upon the UAE's industry-leading entertainment promoters to do a takeover each night; culminating in a 5-day affair that spans hip hop, house, techno and more. And for those looking for a little nostalgia, there will even be an 80's & 90's themed night on Monday, December 2nd.

In addition to the nightly programming, the restaurant will serve up brunch throughout the weekend. Expect tantalizing Mediterranean-inspired eats and free-flowing bevies; set against the backdrop of panoramic marina views from 12pm on Friday and Sunday.

"For this race week, we wanted to shine a light on the region's thriving nightlife scene, and to create an unparalleled experience at Diablito that is reflective of the incredible talent we have here," said Randolph Hernandez, Executive Director at Project Hospitality. "We are really excited to be partnering up with such a dazzling collection of forward-thinking artists, and are looking forward to delivering an experience that combines quality music, delicious brunches and a vibrant rooftop-party vibe."

The Big Race Weekender kicks off on Thursday with City Vibes' DJ KaBoo and The Project's Saif and Sound taking over the decks. Saif and Sound is one of the UAE's most established personalities in the music & entertainment industry. From presenting his own shows at leading radio stations to playing to crowds in the tens of thousands, Saif has dedicated his life to entertaining the masses. A force to be reckoned with, DJ KaBoo is known for sweeping the decks with his slick selection of hip-hop, r'n'b, old school and house music; winning awards and gaining accolades region-wide along the way.

On Friday, Disrupt bring Dubai's largest hip-hop and r'n'b night to the capital. The high octane, rambunctious Steezy -- which is typically housed at Industrial Avenue -- has recruited resident Mr Levier for the night. Expect pure jump-off vibes from start to finish.

Electronic music lovers are in for a treat on Saturday, when Boogie Box bring internationally-acclaimed techno and house producer Raxon, with support from Hassan Alwan and Hoolz. Egyptian born and Barcelona-based, Raxon is testament to the adage that passion and determination will take you where you want to be. Having DJed for over 20 years, his exposure to countless trends has helped shape the signature stripped back melodic techno-driven sound he is best known for. That unique Raxon sound can now be heard on a plethora of releases on some of the most respected labels in dance music, including Ellum, Dynamic, Cocoon, among others.

Wrapping off Race Day with a bang, Sunday sees Ma Nuit and 411 Nights take over the rooftop to host DJ Bliss and Mixed Feelings. A staple in the region's music scene, DJ Bliss needs no introduction. The seasoned DJ, producer and TV personality has consistently pushed the boundaries of music and entertainment in the UAE and beyond. Also on the bill that evening is Mixed Feelings; the DJ duo that has taken over Dubai's party scene with their incredible talent, having previously working with big industry names such as Drake and Majid Jordan.

On Monday, get ready for the perfect nostalgic wind down after a heart-racing weekend with 'Instagram Killed The Radio Star' - an 80's and 90's themed party with Tulzy. Having ran successful residencies at infamous clubs like Republic Lounge, Bullion Bar, Era and Colorbox, the South African artist takes over the reins as Diablito's newly appointed resident DJ.
